

Welcome to the fifth InnoBridge Newsletter!

The project has carried out an intensive activity during the last months, with an outstanding involvement of their partners and stakeholders. They have continued with the in-depth exchange on their Good Practices and/or on their whole policy measures fostering the commercialisation of R&D results. The learning process has been achieved through their participation in several Staff Exchanges, Capacity Building Workshops, Interregional Learning Workshops and Study Visits.

We invite you all to learn more about the InnoBridge progress!

Outlook on next activities

In the next months InnoBridge partners will organize several Staff Exchanges in different InnoBridge partner regions with in-depth exchange on single Good Practices or on whole policy measures fostering the commercialisation of R&D results. These Staff Exchanges will accompany further development of the draft Action Plans which each partner region will present at the 9th Interregional Learning Workshop in Lower Austria on 27-29 November 2018, hosted by the Government of Lower Austria. Another Capacity Building Workshop will deal with further elaboration of Policy Recommendations, and will be combined with a Study Visit.
