Universidad Pablo de Olavide

WHO WAS PABLO DE OLAVIDE Y JÁUREGUI?

He was born in Lima, Peru, in 1725.
Died in Baeza, Spain, in 1803.

He received his Ph.D. in Law from Mayor de San Marcos University, in Lima, where he was Professor of Arts and Theology. He was also a writer and poet.

King Charles III of Spain appointed him Superintendent of the New Populations of Sierra Morena.

He undertook many works of reform in the city of Seville: sewage, improvements of the banks of the river and ordered to raise the first plane of the city in 1771.

It also carried out the repopulation of the royal road from Seville to Madrid, founding more than forty villages in the present provinces of Cadiz, Seville, Cordoba, Jaén and Ciudad Real.
