

1.18 M €

Project budget

1 M €

ERDF / IPA

18 months

Project duration

The development of Blue Economy and Maritime Spatial Planning in the Mediterranean represents a transnational challenge for Marine Protected Areas (MPAs).

Capitalizing on existing EU projects and other initiatives results, the PHAROS4MPAs project will conceive and deliver an integrated framework for recommendations on the necessary practical collaboration between MPAs and 8 maritime sectors.

The expected change is an enhanced management effectiveness for marine protected areas. Ultimately, the project will contribute to maintaining marine biodiversity and ecosystems.

Project partners

WWF France
WWF Mediterranean

Priority Actions
Programme
Regional Activity
Centre (PAP/RAC)

Regional Development
Funds for North
Aegean Region

National
Agency of the Administration
of Protected Areas in Albania

Institute of the Republic of Slovenia for Nature
Conservation

National Research
Council - Institute of Marine
Sciences

University of Girona - Institute of Aquatic
Ecology