

Information material. 30 November 2016

On 30 November 2016 in Transport and Telecommunication Institute the brainstorming for development of a Latvian strategy for the Latvian Railway (LDZ) and transit industry was organized by Latvian Railway Logistics, Transport and Telecommunication institute and Latvian Transport Development and Education Association.

Brainstorming was conducted under the the supervision of Professor Igor Kabashkin.

Leaders of the brainstorming (Verners Lusis, Chairman of the Board of Latvian Railway Logistics and Igor Kabashkin, Professor of TTI)

Professor Igor Kabashkin presented methodology of brainstorming and main content of EDU-Rail project

Within 6 hours team of more 30 leadres of leading Latvian railway, logistics and transit business enterprises discussed key question of future development of national railway and logistics. One of the key question was education and vocation training. Information about EDU-RAIL project was included in the agenda of preliminary presentation before brainstorming.

First part of brainstorming. Selfpresentations of participants.Presentation of methodology of brainstorming.

Second part of Brainstorming. Teamwork.

The third part of the brainstorming. Presentation of the teamworks results and their discussion.

